

Summer 2022 Gambrell Social Justice Interns

Liz Crouse is an Elon University Class of 2022 graduate. She majored in Professional Writing and Rhetoric and is originally from Cary, North Carolina. She loves walking, drawing, and writing and is very excited to be a Caldwell Intern this summer!

Ellen Fiedler is from Apex, NC and is a recent graduate of Elon University with a degree in Human Service Studies.

Upon completing her internship, she will be attending the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in pursuit of a Master's of Social Work degree. Ellen loves discovering new music, hearing people's life stories, and watching ridiculous reality TV shows with her friends!

Justice Opoku is a master's student at St. Andrews University with a concentration in Business Administration. He has a Bachelor's degree in Visual Art with a concentration in Game Art from St. Andrews University. He is from Charlotte, NC. He played football for 5 years in college and was a part of the Esports program for 2 years. He enjoys building computers and playing disc golf.

Eleanor Williamson is a rising junior at Queens University of Charlotte majoring in Communications with a minor in Interfaith Studies. She is a campus leader for many clubs and organizations and is heavily involved in her sorority, Phi Mu. She is originally from Indiana. In her free time, she does pet sitting and loves to curl up with a new book.